Dear Prof. Mollow,

On behalf of the Silesian University in Opava - School of Business Administration, I would like to express our warmest congratulations on the occasion of the University of Food Technologies' 70th anniversary. This significant milestone is a testament to the dedication and hard work of your university, staff, and students over the years.

As a strategic international partner of your esteemed institution, we have had the pleasure of collaborating on various educational and research initiatives. Our partnership has been mutually beneficial, and we are proud of the positive impact we have made on our respective academic communities. We are committed to strengthening our relationship and continuing to foster academic excellence through our joint efforts.

Once again, congratulations on this significant milestone, and we look forward to many more years of fruitful cooperation between our institutions.

Sincerely,

Roman Šperka
dean

Dear Rector,

thank you very much for your invitation for the international symposium „The UTF Teaching and Research -Quo Vadis in the Next 70 Years?“ in the occasion of the 70th anniversary of the University of Food Technologies. Let me wish your university a lot of successful graduates and success not only in the field of science but also within the international cooperation. We really appreciate the long-time cooperation with your university and we are looking forward to another mutual collaboration.

Unfortunately, I cannot accept your invitation for the symposium. However, the School of Business Administration in Karviná, the Department of Tourism and Leisure Activities will be represented by Dr. Miroslava Kostková, Ph.D.

Best regards,

doc. Ing. Pavlína Pellešová, Ph.D.
