

SOCOTAB

Leaf tobacco

A leading oriental tobacco company is looking for a reliable and proactive person to join our company in the temporary position of Chemical Lab Assistant. The Chemical Laboratory is an auxiliary unit to the Production and carries out tests of the raw material as per established procedures and in compliance with customer requirements.

Our preferred candidate will possess:

- Specialized secondary education or higher degree
- Good computer literacy (MS Excel in particular).
- Knowledge of methods and equipment for chemical analyses.
- Working level command of English (written and spoken)
- Analytical, creative and problem-solving attitude
- Attention to detail and team work skills.

Main duties and responsibilities:

- Carries out measurements and analyzes the physical and chemical characteristics of raw material and ready product as per.
- Supports all work activities in the Chemical lab.
- Prepares various reports as requested by the Management or customers.

We offer:

- On the job training and opportunity to gain professional experience
- An interesting and dynamic job in a well-established international company
- Competitive remuneration
- Training and development opportunities

Stages of the selection process:

1. CV screening
2. MS Excel and English language tests
3. Interview

If you are interested in this position and your expertise is matching our requirements, please send us your CV via email: viktoriya.ruseva@socotab.com before 08.03.2021

In case you have questions, you can contact us at 032/904 163 every working day – Viktoriya Ruseva